Rev's Ramblings

Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II's long reign provided both stability and constancy in the life of our nation, seeing us through many crises, conflicts and uncertain times. Her death last month will be a historic milestone, a feeling these past weeks the ground has shifted significantly, a collective loss unlike many of us has experienced before.

Our Queen was a woman who looked in two directions for her entire life: Upwards to God and outwards towards the people she was to serve. Though she did not reveal what she thought about a whole host of subjects, she was indeed open and clear about her trust in Jesus Christ. For the rest of this month's ramblings, may I share a collated mini-sermon of Her Majesty's quotes that would be a gift in any pulpit:

'The simple facts of Jesus' life give us little clue as to the influence he was to have on the world. As a boy he learnt his father's trade as a carpenter. He then became a preacher, recruiting twelve supporters to help him. But his ministry only lasted a few years and he himself never wrote anything down. In his early thirties he was arrested, tortured, and crucified with two criminals. His death might have been the end of the story, but then came the resurrection and with it the foundation of the Christian faith.'

'I know just how much I rely on my faith to guide me through the good times and the bad. Each day is a new beginning. I know that the only way to live my life is to try to do what is right, to take the long view, to give of my best in all that the day brings, and to put my trust in God. I draw strength from the message of hope in the Christian gospel.'

And to what greater inspiration and counsel can we turn than to the imperishable truth to be found in this treasure house, the Bible?

'For me the teachings of Christ and my own personal accountability before God provide a framework in which I try to lead my life I, like so many of you, have drawn great comfort in difficult times from Christ's words and example. "Jesus of Nazareth makes it clear that genuine human happiness and satisfaction lie more in giving than receiving, more in serving than in being served. We can surely be grateful that, two thousand years after the birth of Jesus, so many of us are able to draw inspiration from his life and message, and to find in him a source of strength and courage.'

'Many will have been inspired by Jesus' simple but powerful teaching: Love God and love thy neighbour as thyself in other words, treat others as you would like them to treat you. His great emphasis was to give spirituality a practical purpose.'

'His simple message of love has been turning the world upside down ever since. He showed that what people are and what they do, does matter, and does make all the difference. He commanded us to love our neighbours as we love ourselves, but what exactly is meant by 'loving ourselves'. I believe it means trying to make the most of the abilities we have been given, it means caring for our talents. It is a matter of making the best of ourselves, not just doing the best for ourselves.'

'We are all different, but each of us has his own best to offer. The responsibility for the way we live life with all its challenges, sadness, and joy is ours alone. If we do this well, it will also be good for our neighbours. If you throw a stone into a pool, the ripples go on spreading outwards.'

'Although we are capable of great acts of kindness, history teaches us that we sometimes need saving from ourselves— from our recklessness or our greed. God sent into the world a unique person— neither a philosopher nor a general (important though they are)— but a Saviour, with the power to forgive. Forgiveness lies at the heart of the Christian faith. It can heal broken families it can restore friendships and it can reconcile divided communities. It is in forgiveness that we feel the power of God's love.'

'God sent His only Son 'to serve, not to be served. He restored love and service to the centre of our lives in the person of Jesus Christ. It is my prayer that his example and teaching will continue to bring people together to give the best of themselves in the service of others.'

'Christ not only revealed to us the truth in his teachings. He lived by what he believed and gave us the strength to try to do the same – and, finally, on the cross, he showed the supreme example of physical and moral courage.'

'In difficult times we may be tempted to find excuses for self-indulgence and to wash our hands of responsibility. Christmas stands for the opposite... we need to go out and look for opportunities to help those less fortunate than ourselves, even if that service demands sacrifice.'

'For Christians, as for all people of faith, reflection, meditation, and prayer help us to renew ourselves in God's love, as we strive daily to become better people. And the Christmas message shows us that this love is for everyone. There is no one beyond its reach.' Amen.

Go well, God bless.

Fine Foundation Centre

Beer Village Heritage

Reg. Charity No.1087162

Although visitor numbers have decreased since the summer holidays, we still have a flow of visitors to the Fine Foundation Centre. A couple of microbiologists came in last week and were fascinated by the research programme related to the piece of rock which had been in space. You will recall that the experiment was designed to find out if the bacteria found in the greensand could survive the rigours of space. I find it humbling to realise that Beer has a place – albeit a small one -in Man's exploration of the universe.

Don't forget to contribute to our hag-stone collection. You'll find tie-on labels in the centre, where there is also a display of some of those already contributed.. The centre will be open daily for at least another month. The fishermen have taken the wrasse and lobster back to sea and the tanks now reflect the rockpools. The hermit crabs in particular are a delight to watch. Outside the centre, the exhibits in the display cases are available all the time. You can access the Beer Village Heritage walks and I-Spy on line via our website:

The September "Pebbles People" video for the Jurassic Coast Trust's celebrations for their 20th anniversary has just been posted on the brand new Jurassic Coast website. It's worth a visit just to see the stunning shots of Beer Head and Under Hooken on the home page.

As I write this I realise that this is the last week in which to pick blackberries. They are particularly plentiful this year and freeze well. However, according to custom they should not be gathered after the end of September because "the Devil will spit on them".

The myth appears to relate to the fact that they go mouldy on the plant very quickly about now and are no good for eating. Given that we have had a very hot dry summer it's wonderful to see that fruit trees are so heavily laden this autumn. Even those which would normally be having a fallow year seem to be producing some wonderful crops. The recent rains have helped things like carrots and beetroot as well as the leeks and beans. Hopefully your water butts have been replenished too.

We've had reports of some recent sightings of glow worms, proving that these elusive insects are still active. We can also see that the squirrels have been busy harvesting the hazel nuts, taking them before they're ripe enough for we humans.

The recent East Devon AONB meeting heard more information on the effects on wildlife of the Lower Otter Restoration Project. This is a major environmental project which will contribute to our understanding of ways in which we can manage the landscape to cope with climate change. With its counterpart project in the Saane Valley in Normandy it will provide a number of lessons for the wider community. The cricket pitch in Budleigh Salterton has just been moved to higher ground and should no longer flood regularly.

Beer Village Heritage and the Fine Foundation Centre are run entirely by volunteers. Our regular helpers such as David Morling, Nick Jones, Mike Green, Chris Jones, Carol Green, Henry or Norah Jagers are always happy to provide more information about the organisation. Seaton Beer and District Branch RNLI

It was with great sadness that everyone at the RNLI learned of the passing of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II on Thursday 8th September. Queen Elizabeth was our dedicated Patron for 70 years and her support to our lifesavers will never be forgotten. The Queen attended many occasions recognising the work and commitment of the RNLI Volunteers and during her reign our lifeboat crews and beach lifeguards saved 65,979 lives.

Our own RNLI Shop at Beer in respect to the Queen was closed from the 9th to the 11th September and on Monday 19th September for the day of the State Funeral. During that time our RNLI flag was flown at half mast. I signed the Book of Condolence at the Seaton Town Council Office on behalf of our Seaton Beer and District Branch.

On Saturday 3rd September our treasurer Novello and I took part in the Walking Pairs Class of Seaton Carnival Procession and we received 1st prize and the cup. Our entry was called "Summer Time Rescue" that was a title from approximately twenty two years ago. I made a D Class lifeboat for RNLI Ted 1's pushchair and RNLI Ted 2 was being rescued in his Sea Pushchair. Ann joined us collecting and we had a great time.

This year our Annual Autumn Sponsored Walk is on Sunday 23rd October. We will be following the route from Woodhouse Lane near Uplyme to Seaton via Musbury, Colyton and Colyford. The distance is approximately 8.5 miles (no Sat nav or Google Maps in those days!) when we previously completed it in 1994, 2004, 2010 and 2015. Additional walkers are needed and welcome. If anyone would like to part please telephone message me to 07790861531 or email wac500@hotmail.co.uk for details. Sponsor forms are available or donations can be made on the day.

As we proceed through October we will be attending the Axe Yacht Club Charity Day on Sunday 8th October in aid of our branch of the RNLI and the Beer Royal British Legion Table Top Sale on Saturday 29th October (to be confirmed). We will be attending events and Christmas Fairs in our area during November and December with our RNLI Sales Stall.

Best wishes and thank you for your support to everyone in our area.

BEER ACTION GROUP

BEER WI

It was with great sadness that all members of The Women's Institute from around Great Britain and The World learned of the death of Queen Elizabeth II early in September. As well as all her matters of state, head of the Commonwealth and so many close family members The Queen had been a lifelong member of the Sandringham WI and attended many of their meetings as well as celebrating many major WI events. All our condolences go to King Charles III and the rest of the members of the Royal Family at this exceedingly sad time.

Our first meeting after our summer break was very well attended and a great time to catch up with all the summer happenings.

Sue, our programme organiser, had been presented with problems straight away when our booked speaker, and then the replacement speaker both were unable to carry out the engagement due to hospital commitments. However, a local speaker, David Morling, was booked and gave a very interesting talk on 'The Influences of Reading Through the Ages', reminding us all of the great value to be had by the ability to read. We are indeed the lucky ones, as it is only a little over one hundred years that compulsory schooling for all children has been in place.

Before the business and information section of the evening took place everyone was able to have a taste, and vote on, the various apple cakes submitted for our competition. The winner, Jennie Harding, will now have to bake again for our entry to the group meeting in October.

There was also a scarf swap with many lovely scarves finding new homes.

Our next meeting is on Wednesday 5th October at Beer Congregational Church Hall, 7.15 for 7.30. Also, on 20th October Beer WI is hosting the local WIs Autumn Group Meeting in the function room at The Dolphin.

For more information please contact 01297 21864 or 01297 599157
Guests and new members always welcome.

Plans for the Royal British Legion Beer Branch for our Poppy Appeal are underway. We have a slightly different team for the Appeal this year and luckily have retained the hardworking services of Peter Anderson.

The Appeal will commence on Thursday 27 October in and around Beer. Boxes will be placed during the week of 24 October. Our main launch will be on Saturday 29 October in the Congregational Hall with a coffee morning and stalls. We will also have a surprise guest present – a challenge was set by me to the wonderful ‘Langs’, who in their usual manner responded admirably. Their efforts and hardwork will be seen on that day and will remain in the Churchyard during the Appeal.

Poppies will adorn the main street and we will work closely with the school, scouts and cubs, bearing in mind one of our standard bearers is Jacob from the Explorers.

Members organising areas are:

Moto Services from Friday 04 November to Thursday 10 November –
Glyn Holford will organise and asks for more volunteers please. His number is 07887753305.

Many many thanks to all our volunteers for assisting with this very poignant Poppy Appeal for 2022. With out Patron’s funeral watched by millions, our Legion Standards present by the Cenotaph in London, we will remember her and her tireless service to so many charities.

Armistice Day will be on the Friday 11 with short service by the Church Memorial and on Remembrance Sunday our Parade will start at the Scout Hut and walk through New Cut to the Church where wreaths and reading out of the names of the fallen will take place to be followed by the Church Service.

Any queries please do not hesitate to contact me, especially if you feel you could give up a few hours of time to volunteer. There will be no house-to-house collection this year.

Abundance

The source of all abundance is not outside you.

It is part of who you are. However, start by acknowledging and recognizing abundance without. See the fullness of life all round you.

The warmth of the sun on your skin, the display of magnificent flowers outside a florist's shop, biting into a succulent fruit or getting soaked in an abundance of water falling from the sky.

The fullness of life is there at every step. The acknowledgment of that abundance that is all around you awakens the dormant abundance within. Then let it flow out. When you smile at a stranger, there is already a minute outflow of energy. You become a giver.

Ask yourself often: "What can I give here; how can I be of service to this person, this situation?"

You don't need to own anything to feel abundant, although if you feel abundant consistently things will almost certainly come to you.

Abundance comes only to those who already have it.

(From ONENESS WITH ALL LIFE, by Eckhart Tolle)

Beer Parish News

Beer Regatta 2023 does need you

Out of respect for our Queen's funeral the Regatta AGM has been moved from Monday 19th September to Thursday 6th October at 7.30pm.

In addition due to the amount of interest shown in the new Committee positions this will now be a wash up meeting, with EGM, which will provide an opportunity to discuss the Regatta situation, ideas going forward, job role details, and actions required before the AGM in January 2023.

We can discuss job allocation if needed and people can declare their serious interest in a role which can then be noted.
